

Published in the Halifax Chronicle Herald, Tuesday the 23rd of February 2010

Continue to remember

Congratulations on Bruce MacKinnon's poignant and fitting Sunday editorial cartoon noting that our last First World War veteran has died. It should also be a reminder of the many Second World War and Korean War vets leaving us each month.

We should continue to remember and honour them and all others who have served and continue to serve Canada at home and in trouble spots around the world.

Alex Morrison, Cornwallis Park